MacKenzie's and the Wildwood have been favourites for Nova Scotia tourists and travelers for almost as long. Family-owned for decades both offer the best of Nova Scotia intimate brookside cottages, motel rooms and luxury suites.

With a park-like, brook side setting with suites, cottages and motels, they offer a relaxed, quiet setting with 26 standard and deluxe motel rooms, some with kitchenettes. A 10-minute walk from the Historic Waterfront District with restaurants, cafes, shopping, galleries & pubs, these Nova Scotia-style cottages, motel and suites have many features, including private baths, satellite TV, telephone, air conditioning, free continental breakfast and free, high-speed wireless internet service. All the Cottages feature full kitchens, with cooking utensils and dinnerware; hair dryers, ironing boards and irons are available for all guests. The luxury Nova Scotia Suites include a fireplace and whirlpool bath.

MacKenzie's Motel features affordable and clean single and double rooms, with fridge and microwave, in-room coffee. the Cottages, Motel & Suites are a favourite for visitors to Shelburne Founders' Days, the Shelburne County Lobster Festival, the Nova Scotia Tall Ships Festival, the Osprey Arts Centre and the Shelburne Museum Complex and Historic Dock Street.
