Mackenzie's and Wildwood have been family-owned for decades and both offer the best of Nova Scotia intimate brookside cottages, motel rooms and luxury suites. With the combination of a park-like, brook side setting with suites, cottages and motels, we offer a relaxed, quiet setting with twenty-six standard and deluxe motel rooms, some with kitchenettes - something for every taste and budget!

We're just a 10-minute walk from the Historic Waterfront District, with restaurants, cafes, shopping, galleries & pubs...

You won't find a more welcoming place to stay on Nova Scotia's South Shore than Mackenzie's & Wildwood... and we've taken the utmost care to make your stay a memorable one.

Our Nova Scotia-style cottages, motel and suites all have many features, including private baths, satellite TV, telephone, air conditioning, free continental breakfast and free, high-speed wireless internet service.

All of the comfortable Nova Scotia Cottages feature full kitchens, with cooking utensils and dinner ware. Hair dryers, ironing boards and irons are available for all guests. The luxury Nova Scotia Suites include a fireplace and whirlpool bath. MacKenzie's Motel features affordable and clean single and double rooms, with fridge and microwave, in-room coffee.

MacKenzie's & Wildwood Cottages, Motel & Suites is a also perennial favourite for visitors to Shelburne Founders' Days, the Shelburne County Lobster Festival, the Annual Whirligig & Weathervane Festival, the Nova Scotia Tall Ships Festival, the Osprey Arts Centre and the Shelburne Museum Complex and Historic Dock Street.
