Sandra Bell is a Shelburne resident who has been staging and designing home interiors and exteriors for over 10 years. Her affordable pre-sale staging and consultation work helps sellers spend fewer days on market and sell for top dollar. The last home she designed (modern farmhouse interior and exterior) doubled the homeowner's investment on resale. Her style can be described as modern meets eclectic with 'Canadiana' flair and comfort is king. She specializes in providing clients with a 'high end look' for low end prices.

The designer's other creative services include graphic design (postcards, posters, flyers, business cards), website design (architecture, graphics and content), and business writing (grants, fundraising, CVs).
