Special Council Meeting
March 2, 2022

2(a) Trudy Payne, CAO, informed Council that other government departments were aiding Ukraine, asking whether the Municipality would like to participate in that effort as well.

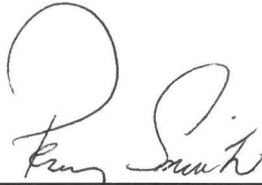

A discussion was held regarding the conflict in Ukraine, viable solutions, and options the Municipality could do to help. Various options were discussed, including flying the Ukrainian flag on municipal flagpoles, using spotlights in front of the municipal building, and donating money to the cause. Council directed staff to investigate this issue, research what other municipal units are doing, and present possible options to the Council at the next meeting.

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 6:30 pm.
